Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Then: Witness to an execution as the disparity, injustice, and cruelty of the death penalty is carried out. Now: The death penalty is abolished in twenty states. Then: Geraldine Ferraro was nominated by the Democratic Party to run as the vice presidential candidate. Now: Women are among those seeking the presidential nomination in both major parties. Then and now: The juxtaposition on a host of major issues present in the 1980 s and the first decade of the 21st century. Is America a religious nation? The abuse of power, the relation between church and state: These are but a few sample of the 31 commentaries addressing issues spanning the decades from the 1980 s to the present. There are some which stand alone without any parallel expression in our day. There is one titled: Baseball Revisited. The times they are a-changing. Yes and no! Is there anything new under the sun? Yes and no! Weaving in timeless themes from Ecclesiastes and the ancient Greeks, Leverenz astutely comments on cogent, insightful radio commentaries he wrote back in the Reagan years, capturing both progress and the absence of change--from the Reagan years to Obama. --Craig R. Mosher, Associate Professor Director of Social Work Program; Department Head - Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work (SASW) Department, Luther College Leverenz s book [is] an extremely readable and timely series of then and now vignettes that expose key issues presently facing us as actually being repetitions of those [from] the 1980 s. Drawing from his experiences as a pastor and Public Radio commentator, he skillfully weaves his realistic thesis that while the players in history change, the plot remains recognizably the same....
