General Accounting Office, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)55619454 Subject: Business life insurance -- Taxation -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . reported at cash surrender value - that is, the sum of accumulated premium payments and inside buildup, less accumulated insurance costs, fees, and charges that the policyholder would be required to pay for surrendering the policy. It does not take into account income tax liabilities that might result from the surrender. The Federal Reserve, FDIC, and OCC require the institutions they regulate to disclose the cash surrender value of policies worth more than 25, 000 in aggregate and exceeding 25 percent of other assets, which include such items as repossessed personal property and prepaid expenses. Through the end of 2003, OTS required the thrifts it supervises to report the cash surrender value of policies if the value was one of the three largest components of other assets; in 2004, OTS began requiring all the thrifts it supervises to report the cash surrender value of their policies. We found that about one-third of banks and thrifts...
