Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 34 pages. Dimensions: 10.9in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. Created by grandparents as an outside place for their granddaughters to use their imagination, the Fairy Walk becomes a place of enchantment and dreams. The grandparents build an inviting and loving atmosphere for their granddaughters and family to enjoy to laugh and sing and to make up their own fairy adventures and dream their own dreams. Imagine the excitement when the Fairy Walk begins to awaken and return to a magical place of joy and laughter when the trees and animals come to visit and stay on the Fairy Walk. Meet the Storyteller Grandfather trees who have stood for many, many years and awaken on the Fairy Walk. See the animals that arrive from the forest to play with the granddaughters. As the Fairy Walk comes to life, everyone waits to see if the fairies will appear. When imagination soars among the granddaughters, the fairies arrive in a blaze of light, sparkles and music. What fun they all have together on the Fairy Walk. Authors Bio Elaine Griswold holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from Boston University which she has utilized in her long career in the nursing field. Her interests have always included reading and writing, always with a goal of writing children's stories. She enjoys having fun with her granddaughters in the important things of life; baking cookies, hats, tea parties, reading, writing and using imagination to enhance their joy in life. Elaine Griswold lives in Lebanon, Oregon with her husband. Her granddaughters live in Oregon and Texas. Illustrators Bio Melissa Roza comes from a long line of musicians and artists in her creative family. She has always enjoyed drawing but will tell you that she did not do well...
