The Spectre of Layla Gary: The Chariot Allegory (Paperback)

By Melinda

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Layla will be a slave to no one, but what is she willing to do when captured and inimitably imprisoned in Sierra Leone? Melinda Parker creatively spins a twisted tale of deception and intrigue in The Spectre of Layla Gary. When the mad scientist Dr. Conner McCleary falls in love with Layla, he experiments on a plant with powers to sustain her life for hundreds of years. But this fountain of youth comes with spirits from the underworld. Though a few are good, most are conniving and evil. When the doctor injects Layla and himself with Suah, Layla's youth, beauty, and vitality are restored, and they gain wealth beyond their dreams. However, the doctor soon realizes the unintended consequence of the drug: Layla and Conner will turn into Suah plants themselves unless he finds a way to stop their bodies slow photosynthesis. Layla gains the trust of the wisest Suah spirits, realizing she will die without its essence while Conner refuses to give her Suah. She must beg for Suah every three months as her...
