H., June 12, 1872 The 5th of February completed one hundred years of the existence of the Congregational Church in Warner, N. H. At a meeting prior to that day, a vote was passed to observe the Centennial, and the time fixed upon was the 12th of June. On the evening of the anniversary, however, a prayer-meeting was held, and the covenant of the early church and extracts from the records were read. On the June day appointed, a large congregation of townspeople, former residents, and friends from near and far, came together to commemorate the event. The church edifice was beautifully decorated with flowers about the pulpit, and festoons and wreaths of evergreen on the walls, and the names of the nine pastors were arranged in the form of a cross between the dates 1772 and 1872. Above them were the words, Thy faithfulness is unto all generations, in evergreen, and opposite, along the gallery, Jesus Christ being the chief corner-stone. Rev. Mr. Jewett of Fisherville made the invocation prayer, and Rev. Dr. Bouton the one before the address; and Psalm cxii, and the last eight verses of Ephesians ii were read by the former. The anthem: They that trust in the Lord, and the hymn; I love thy kingdom, Lord, were sung. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
