This is the first reported case in the United States where the nullity of an unconstitutional law was discussed before a judicial tribunal. It is the first great American precedent. Sec 4 Call s Virginia Reports, page 5. In 1803 the Supreme Court of the United States held that, The powers of the legislature (Congress) are defined and limited; and, that those limits might not be mistaken or forgotten, the Constitution is written. This is the first instance in which an act of Congress was held unconstitutional, and the first in history wherein a court called in question an act of a national legislature. See Marbury vs. Madison, I Cranch, United States Reports, 162. The American people have since believed that the principles thus announced and since followed are essential to their rights and liberty.
