KAKA Senator A. Ms. Duke, I have some concerns about accountability with dotted line or dual reporting authority. In what management functions is DHS using dual reporting authority And what steps have been taken to hold component management chiefs accountable for following departmental standards UKE Ms. D. All the chiefs use dotted line functional authority, so all six of them. Additionally, we are appointing component acquisition executives in each of the components to have an accountability there. About half the components have someone there. The main areas we have are inputting to performance appraisals, which, as Ms. Steinhardt said last year, principally...
