Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Elements of Logic: Comprising the Doctrine of the Laws and Products of Thought, and the Doctrine of Method, Together With a Logical Praxis; Designed for Classes and for Private Study The present work is designed for learners. As a branch of science, the study of Logic commends itself by very special, not to say preeminent claims to all lovers of learning and liberal culture. But a leading motive in the preparation of this volume has been to furnish a needed help to the training of thought for effective communication in discourse. The first requisite for good speaking and good writing is the power to think well; and to a good thinker, the study of Logic as the science of Thought bears the same relation as the study of mathematics to a good civil engineer. The plan of the work has been determined by this governing design. The aim has been to develop the science in strict method. From the determination of the single radical principle of Thought, its Laws and the forms of its Products have been methodically evolved; and the Doctrine of Method with the Exercises is but the end and result toward which the unfolding of the Doctrine of the Elements of Thought has steadily tended. The barbarous terminology of the Scholastic Logic, shol by Sir William Hamilton to be as eiToneous as useless, is discarded, except so far as seemed necessary for understanding the forms in which it has entered and modified general literature. The Exercises are prepared for the help of the teacher, rath. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at...
