Lying Down in the Ever Falling Snow: Canadian Health Professionals' Experience of Compassion Fatigue

By Wendy Austin, E. Sharon Brintnell, Erika Goble, Leon Kagan, Linda Kreitzer

Wilfrid Laurier University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Lying Down in the Ever Falling Snow: Canadian Health Professionals' Experience of Compassion Fatigue, Wendy Austin, E. Sharon Brintnell, Erika Goble, Leon Kagan, Linda Kreitzer, First used to describe the weariness the public felt toward media portrayals of societal crises, the term compassion fatigue has been taken up by health professionals to name--along with burnout, vicarious traumatization, compassion stress, and secondary traumatic stress--the condition of caregivers who become "too tired to care." Compassion, long seen as the foundation of ethical caring, is increasingly understood as a threat to the well-being of those who offer it. Through the lens of hermeneutic phenomenology, the authors present an insider's perspective on compassion fatigue, its effects on the body, on the experience of time and space, and on personal and professional relationships. Accounts of health professionals, alongside examinations of poetry, images, movies, and literature, are used to explore the notions of compassion, hope, and hopelessness as they inform the meaning of caring work. The authors frame their expose of compassion fatigue with the very Canadian metaphor of "lying down in the snow." If suffering is imagined as ever-falling snow, then the need for training...
