I was born July 23, 1984 in Seattle, Washington. I am the son of Karen Amelia Orme. I was the third oldest of four children. My brothers are Donnell, Demetrius, and Denzel. Growing up my mother worked all her life providing for me and my brother just so we can have a better life. I lived in Seattle Washington till I was ten years old then we moved to Las Vegas where I spend most of my teenage year. Freshman year I went to Bonanza High school where I played basketball at for three year and receive one year of varsity Letterman. My senior year I transfer to Western High School and play my final year of varsity basketball and graduated from high school. After high school, I was recruited to play basketball for Clark College in Vancouver Washington. My sophomore year I transferred to Green river College to play basketball but couldn t finish do to my first daughter being born so I moved back to Vancouver, Washington and received a scholarship to Warner Pacific University were I played my Junior year and work toward getting a job out of the country. Got my first job in Chile Patagonia wonderful place that was very cold I learned the meaning of how to live. My second place of work was going on tour with the Globetrotters hitting 35 different countries in three months, seeing extraordinary place that I never thought I d ever see in my life. Next stop was Israel, the place that s been sitting on my heart for years. I never thought I would ever get the...
