Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Fly Sheets Vindicated: Or the Statements and Arguments of the Writers in the Fly Sheets Re-Asserted and Defended AN attempt having been made, by the writers of the Fly Sheets, at great personal inconvenience and expense, to effect a peaceable reform in various departments of the Executive of Modern Wesleyan Methodism; and that attempt having failed, through the supineness or timidity of those who ought to have been the first to move in such a cause, they now reluctantly, and as a last resource, bring the case before the Wesleyan Community at large. To the people they now make their appeal. It is in the power of the people to remedy the mischiefs of which the writers complain, and to restore their beloved Methodism to its original purity and efficiency. Let them but speak with sufficient plainness, on the various questions now in agitation, and all will be well. No grasp, however tenacious; no effrontery, however bold; can long retain and support an abuse upon which the people have once past the sentence of condemnation. That the writers of the Fly Sheets were anxious to preserve the peace of the body undisturbed, is obvious from the fact, that, with few exceptions, the circulation of those papers was confined amongst the preachers. Had they been desirous to stir up strife, or had their motives been mercenary, the publication of those Documents in the ordinary method, would have amply secured both those objects. This, however, was far from their thoughts, whilst engaged in their unpleasant task. It was hoped, that, as the evils on which the writers animadverted originated with, and were. Perpetuated by,...
